

Tłıchq Community Services Agency wins 2006 silver IPAC Innovation in Management Award

The GNWT nominated the Tłıchq Community Services Agency for an IPAC Innovation in Management Award in 2006. IPAC stands for the Institute of Public Administration of Canada.

<http://www.ipac.ca/awards/innovation/index.html>

This is a nationally recognized organization that promotes excellence in public service by the creative exchange of ideas, and through awarding best practices among public servants, academics and students of public administration. Supported by the Tłıchq Government, the Agency was shortlisted out of a field of more than 70 applicants across Canada and then placed second at a celebration honouring the award winners held in Charlottetown PEI in August 2006.

Alfonz Nitsiza, TCSA chairperson receiving award for the Agency from Director General of IPAC in Charlottetown, August 2006.

